Three skiers triggered this from lower on the slope, 100 vertical feet below the crown. This picture was taken at the crown and looks downslope. Luckily they were below these trees when it avalanched since getting carried into them could be fatal. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Northern Madison
Northern Madison, 2014-02-17